PRESS RELEASE

NOMINATIONS WELCOMED FOR W. T. “DOC” BALLARD AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN PUBLIC HEALTH

The Northeast Texas Public Health District (NET Health) announces that nominations are now being accepted for the 2019 W.T. “Doc” Ballard Award for Excellence in Public Health. This 20th annual award will honor an individual or organization exemplifying the concept of public health distinguished by dedication to the goal of protecting and promoting the health of the community.

The nominee does not need to be a Public Health professional. Services provided by the nominee may be in the area of civic, cultural, health, welfare, religious or philanthropic endeavors.

NET Health established the W.T. “Doc” Ballard Award for Excellence in Public Health as a lasting recognition of Mr. Ballard’s contribution to Public Health. W. T. “Doc” Ballard began his career in 1946 and as a registered professional engineer for the Texas Department of Health he was a leader in protecting the health of the public. His expertise and administrative skills ensured the environmental controls crucial to the quality and safety of public drinking water and public food service; the proper disposal of wastewater and solid waste; and the monitoring of radiation.

As a charter member of the NET Health Board of Directors, “Doc” served as a key figure in the formation and establishment of the Health District. He continued his service as Chairman of the Board and was a mentor to many. Throughout his career he was an active member of many professional organizations dedicated to improving the quality of Public Health. Both professionally and personally, “Doc” worked hard to help both the citizens of Northeast Texas and the entire state of Texas.

This award is NET Health’s highest accolade for outstanding service contributing significantly to the enhancement of Public Health. Previous recipients of this award are:
